What this policy covers

HOPE UK constantly strives to safeguard and act in the interest of the public and its employees. It is important to us that any fraud, misconduct or wrongdoing, by employees or other agents, is reported and properly addressed.

This policy applies to all employees and all other agents of HOPE UK, who are encouraged to raise concerns in a responsible manner. We prefer that a concern is raised and dealt with properly, rather than kept quiet.

This policy applies equally to concerns relating to fundraising activity carried out by employees, volunteers, trustees or third-party fundraisers acting on behalf of HOPE UK.

Your responsibilities

You are encouraged to bring to the attention of HOPE UK any practice or action of the organisation, its employees or other agents that you reasonably believe is against the public interest, in that the practice or action is:

- a criminal offence
- a failure to comply with any legal obligation
- a miscarriage of justice
- a danger to the health and safety of any individual
- an attempt to conceal information on any of the above
- an unethical or improper fundraising practice, including undue pressure, misrepresentation, misuse of supporter data, or failure to comply with the Code of Fundraising Practice

Any individual raising legitimate concerns will not be subject to any detriment, either during or after employment. HOPE UK will also endeavour to ensure that the individual is protected from any intimidation or harassment by any other parties.

This policy should not be used for complaints relating to your own personal circumstances, such as the way you have been treated at work, which should be raised under the organisation's Grievance Procedure as detailed in our Employee Handbook.

Procedure

In the first instance, you should raise any concerns you have with your manager. If you believe your manager to be involved, or if, for any reason, you do not wish to approach your manager, then you should raise it with a more senior person at HOPE UK.

Any matter raised under this policy will be investigated promptly and confidentially. The outcome of the investigation, as well as any necessary remedial action to be taken, will be confirmed to you. If no action is to be taken, the reason for this will be explained to you.

Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be treated in confidence and investigated thoroughly. If you raise any concerns under this policy, HOPE UK is committed to ensuring that you are protected from victimisation, harassment or less favourable treatment. Any such incidents will be dealt with under our Disciplinary Procedures.

Escalating your concern

If you are dissatisfied with this response, you should raise your concerns in writing directly in the first instance to senior management, and if not resolved, to the chair of trustees.

If, after escalating your concerns, you believe that the appropriate remedial action has not been taken, you should then report the matter to the proper authority. These authorities include:

- HM Revenue & Customs
- the Financial Conduct Authority
- the Health and Safety Executive
- the Environment Agency or Scottish Environmental Protection Agency
- the Information Commissioner

This list is not intended to be exhaustive, and you must take care to ensure you contact the proper authority in relation to the particular concerns you have.

If you are unsure as to the appropriate authority, advice can be sought from Protect (formerly known as "Public Concern at Work") which is an independent whistleblowing charity. Their contact details are at the end of this policy.

If you raise a false allegation and you are found to be culpable, or in any way involved in the wrongdoing, or if you raise a concern maliciously or in a manner not prescribed in this policy, then you may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal without notice for gross misconduct.

You should not disclose to a non-relevant third party any details of any concern raised in accordance with this policy, and you must not, in any circumstances, publicise your concerns in any way.
